in Tribal Studies by the Ministry of Tribal Affairs,
Government of India

GENESIS

The Centre for the Study of Social Exclusion and Inclusive Policy is a centre sponsored by the University Grants Commission (UGC) functioning in University of Mysore (Karnataka) to conduct research on the issue of social exclusion, which has hypothetical as well as policy importance. The centre is functioning since 2008 as per the UGC guidelines. The focus of research in this centre will be social exclusion and inclusion related to Dalits, tribal, women, religious minorities etc. Since then it has made good contribution by conducting various seminars, conferences and studies related to the observations of social exclusion and inclusion. The centre also started to publish the research findings in the form of working papers. Further, the centre aims to create awareness related to the inclusive practices among the students of the university by offering open elective subjects in select postgraduate courses.

VISION

To build a more socially inclusive and a just society, in which all communities are empowered with equal access to rights, equalities, opportunities, resources and power.

MISSION

We endeavor to ensure the excluded social groups of our society – their rights, self-respect, dignity, integrity, judicial equity and full participation. We espouse strategies and policy advocacy for socio-economic, political and cultural inclusion of deprived social groups. Together, we work to annihilate the barriers that prohibit access to these essential rights, opportunities, resources and power by advocating for structural change in our society.

LIBRARY

Centre is running a theme based Library. This facility is available with the CSSEIP for the benefit of the Students, Researchers and Faculty of other disciplines who are interested in the study of Exclusion and Inclusive Policy.

RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

Academic Research on - Socially Excluded Groups, Displaced Groups, Social Development, Inclusive Policy/Strategies, Empowerment of Tribal and Ethnic Groups, Marginalized Sections, Religious Minorities, Dalits and Other Backward Class.

RESEARCH NETWORK

Centre has effectively established a close relationship with local and state level media (Print and Electronic Version) so that community members also can easily participate with the various activities of the centre. This enables the policy makers to frame more culturally and geographically suitable policies to the disadvantaged sections of the society.
